

Index of Resources: Reflection

“Think About It, Talk About It”

Lift Element	File Type	Grade Level	Discipline	Length (min./sec.)
We Got a Phone Call: Teacher interview with follow-up questions	Video Clip	Middle School	Science	1:03
Pre-Service Reflection: Elementary classroom session with follow-up questions	Video Clip	Elementary School	Cross-disciplinary	0:48
Everybody Has Culture: Interview with students with follow-up questions	Video Clip	High School	Theater	0:55
We Were Stuck: Interview with students with follow-up questions	Video Clip	High School	Theater	0:35
Creating Involved Citizens: Superintendent interview with follow-up questions	Video Clip	All ages	Science	0:38

“Explore Reflection”

Multiple Intelligences: Ideas for reflection activities based on Howard Gardner’s identified intelligences	PDF	All ages	All	NA
Skit on Culture: Interview with high school students and students performing student-written, -produced, and -acted skit	Video Clip	High School	Theater	4:32
Student Reflection: A collection of handouts to use for reflecting throughout a service-learning experience	PDF	All ages	All	NA
Reflection Strategies: Interview with elementary teacher	Video Clip	Elementary School	Cross-disciplinary	2:25
Reflecting on Impact: Address the impact of service-learning on relevant entities — both individuals and institutions	PDF	All ages	All	NA
Discussing Improvement: Discussion with high school students and theater teacher	Video Clip	High School	Theater	1:46
Evidence of Learning: Gain insight into how service activities meet your academic goals through reflection	PDF	All ages	All	NA
Supporting Research: Learn what experts say about the role of meaning and how it affects student outcomes	PDF	High School or Adult	All	NA